Read the story of Boudica's revolt against the Romans. Draw pictures in each box to represent each part.

1. Boudica was married to Prasutagus, king of the Iceni tribe. When he died, she became queen.	2. But the Romans took all her lands, made her relatives slaves, and beat her and her daughters.	3. Boudica was outraged. She refused to give in to the Romans. She decided to raise an army to fight back.
4. Boudica's army marched toward Camulodunum (the capital). They burned the city down.	5. They also burned Londinium and Verulamium. Lots of people were killed, including Celts.	6. Finally, the Roman army beat Boudica's army. Boudica poisoned herself to avoid capture by the Romans.
